

NORMA L. FAVELA
OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT CLERK

January 28, 2011
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
El Paso County, Texas.

District Clerk will extend hours of operation beginning Monday,
January 31, 2011

The El Paso County District Clerk Norma Favela in her first month of office will be extending the hours of operation, effective Monday, January 31, 2011, to better serve the judicial system and the public.

New Hours of Operation:
Monday through Friday
8:00 am to 5:30 pm

"Consistency and dependability is of the utmost importance when it comes to providing support and service to the judicial system," said Norma Favela, District Clerk. "The public must be able to count on the District Clerk's Office being available for services such as court and public filings, jury duty, and passport applications."

The extended hours of operation will provide additional customer service on an annual basis at no additional cost to the taxpayers.

Divisions that will be available until 5:30 pm, Monday through Friday, except on observed holidays, will be the Customer Service cashiers on the first floor, Collections and Passports on the lower level all located in the County Courthouse, 500 E. San Antonio St., and Jury Duty located at 200 S. Kansas St. Suite 105.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Norma L. Favela, District Clerk or Sylvia Pacheco, Chief Deputy District Clerk
@ (915) 546-2021